Adelaide Fringe artist Leticia Maher hosts 'green' Twilight Concert at Whistler Wines

Saturday 27th February at 6:00pm – Whistler Wines Twilight Concert, Seppeltsfield Road, Marananga

Leticia Maher and her band present an delicious Friday evening of musical treats as she hosts a special Twilight Concert 'on the green' at Whistler Wines.

It's been a whirlwind few months for the Melbourne singer, songwriter and guitarist since the launch last year of her acclaimed album Fallen Angels, which is receiving strong community radio airplay around the country. And her 2010 is off to a flying start, following a recent appearance at the St Kilda Festival and two upcoming shows for the Adelaide Fringe, beginning her interstate tour to support the album.

She comes to the Barossa Valley as part of her second SA tour (other dates below) to host the Whistler Wines Twilight Concert, Seppeltsfield Road, Marananga, on Saturday 27th February from 6:00pm.

With a gourmet BBQ sandwich and a glass of wine, this is a delicious way to enjoy a wonderful evening– and find out why The Dwarf said: "Look forward to seeing Leticia live as she's probably one of the hardest working artists in Melbourne. Leticia draws you in. The more you listen, the more you discover... I anticipate great things to come".

Produced by Aria Award winner Craig Pilkington (Killjoys, The Blackeyed Susans, Mick Thomas, The Lucksmiths), and recorded at Audrey Studios with some of Melbourne's most talented musicians, Fallen Angels lifts the veil on an award-winning songwriter whose folk-pop songs touch on fado, jazz, blues and country.

"Fallen Angels, in all glory, is an amazing record. Full of the touching bluesy-folk-pop Leticia Maher is renowned for, it will obviously karmically repay those who indulge in its whimsical charms". Terry Broun Jr, Beat Magazine (Melbourne)

Above all, her crystal-clear, haunting voice and her atmospheric, emotive guitar playing draw you in. An instrument capable of broad swathes of expression... torchy soul, playful country, sophisticated pop jazz, vampy blues to smoky cabaret, Leticia's voice has won her many Victorian and national country music awards.

Her singing brings to mind the clarity of Eva Cassidy, the intimacy of Bic Runga, cool grooves of Diana Krall and the compassion of Sarah McLachlan. "Felt like heroin, easy to float through like a warm beautiful blue river".

For the concert, Leticia will be backed by Greg Williams (ex-Every's – guitar/backing vocals) and renowned Adelaide player Mike Haynes (E-Type Jazz – double bass). Tickets $5 from Whistler Wines: (08) 8562 4942. The gate opens at 6pm for a 6.30pm start. BYO chair. Please no BYO alcohol.
